

May 22, 2010
Dinner & Silent
Auction at 6 p.m.;
Performance at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets Available TODAY for
Blues in the Night:
$75 each / $125 Couple
(Includes dinner, beverages, and musical)

Conceived and Originally Directed by Sheldon Epps

Tony-nominated, this scorching Broadway musical, set in a seedy Chicago hotel, is a full-out compilation of blues songs that interweaves stories of life, loss and love through the unrivalled tunes and lyrics of Bessie Smith, Duke Ellington, Johnny Mercer, Harold Arlen, and many more. Note: For ages 16 and up, for adult themes.*

"...crowd-pleasing appeal ... knock 'em dead vocalizing..."

– Variety

"...it should offer a showcase for some of Atlanta's best chanteuses."

–Curt Holman, Creative Loafing

Sponsors: $1,000 (Tickets for 4 and table for dinner; advertising on our website and in the onsite program guide; verbal recognition during intermission)

For tickets, contact Susan at swatkins@agingservicesga.org

For sponsorship, contact Jacque at jthornton@agingservicesga.org

Please place Cabaret in the subject field of your email. Make check out and remit to:

Georgia Institute on Aging
607 Peachtree Street, NE
Atlanta, GA 30308

Saturday, May 22, 2010 at 6-9:30 p.m.
Cabaret and Silent Auction at Theatrical Outfit

Presenting...Off Broadway Musical

BLUES IN THE NIGHT
WHEN THE MUSIC GETS RED HOT

Please plan to attend and consider sponsoring staff and residents for a fun filled evening in honor of a few deserving candidates that make the difference in your organization!!!